He was so looking forward to starting his new job alongside his father and friend Cory. He was an exceptional brother to his siblings, Sadie Riggs, Samantha Riggs, Santos Riggs, and Jessilyn Aten, and always so proud of them and their accomplishments.

Tyler was an incredible athlete, passionate about football and wrestling. He placed highly in wrestling throughout his career, but he would tell you "Wrestling was just training for football season". This was a young man with an old soul. He showed unconditional love and loyalty to all his family and friends. He had many interests and talents, including making music, making memories, and making people smile.

November 4, 1998 ~ July 3, 2019

Music has moments of rapturous sound
And intervals of rest.

It thrills the heart with its majesty
And soothes it when suppressed.

Life too has ringing,
throbbing tones And muted, silent
keys,

Yet both are merged at the master's touch
Into living symphonies.
