

Daniel Alan "Dan" Baker was born on August 3, 1964, in Stanley, ND to Sharon Lee and Bion Baker. He grew up in New Town, ND where he started school. Then when he was in the 3rd grade they moved to Watford City. In 1974, they moved to Bowman, ND and in 1977, they moved back to Watford City where Dan graduated from high school. After graduation, Dan attended college in Wahpeton, ND. He worked on oil rigs and work over rigs before moving to Phoenix, AZ. While in Phoenix, Dan worked construction for over 20 years. In 2010, Dan moved back to the Watford City area and started his own construction company.

Dan was a kind hearted person, and always was smiling. He enjoyed riding his Harley Davidson and made several trips to the Rally in Sturgis. He was an artist, and he enjoyed drawing semi-trucks. He enjoyed watching movies and traveling, his last trip was to Chicago. Dan loved to buy things, but one was never enough so he would buy two or three of whatever he was buying. He just recently started his hand at gardening.

Dan passed away in Sturgis, South Dakota.

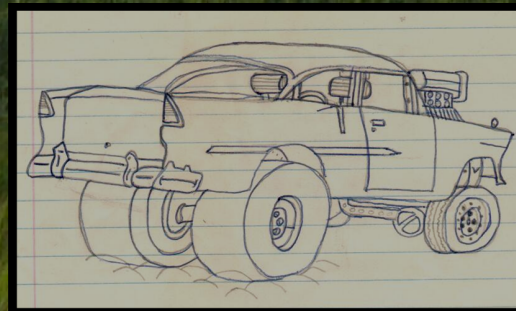

Surviving him are: his son, Brandon Baker; his mother and step father, Sharon (Calvin) Brown, Watford City, ND; his brother, Jeffrey (Lisa) Baker, Meza, AZ; half-brother, Brent (Tammy) Brown, Dickinson, ND; his nephew, Dillon Brown; niece, Megan Brown; numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

He was preceded in death by: his father, Bion Baker, all of his grandparents, numerous Aunts and Uncles.

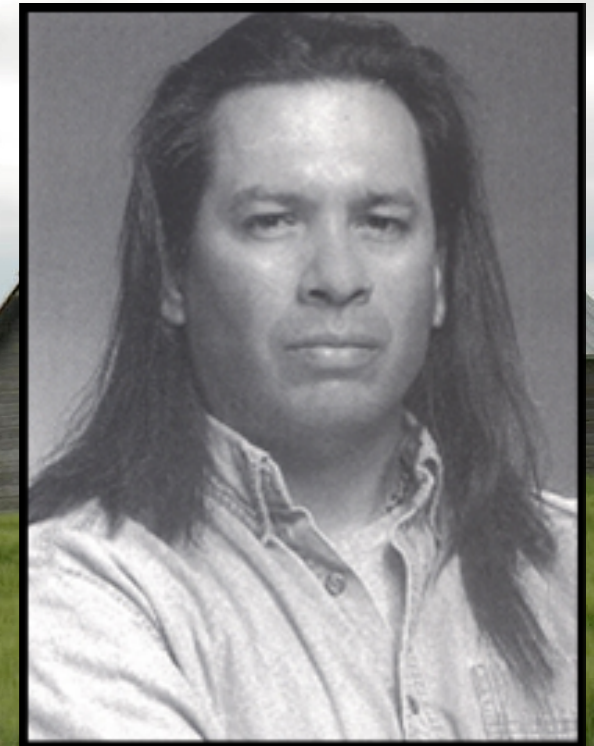

"I Have a Place in Heaven"

*Please don't sing sad songs for me,
Forget your grief and fears,
For I am in a perfect place,
Away from pain and tears...
I'm far away from hunger
And hurt and want and pride.
I have a place in Heaven
With the Master at my side.
My life on earth was very good,
As earthly lives can go,
But Paradise is so much more
Than anyone can know...
My heart is filled with happiness
And sweet rejoicing, too.
To walk with God is perfect peace,
A joy forever new.*

The Chain

We knew little that morning
That God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly.
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
That day God called you HOME.
You left us
peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide;
And though we cannot see you,
You are ALWAYS at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again
