

Doris Virginia Candee Fisher was born on the farm 17 miles south of Poplar, MT to Floyd and Cleta Candee on October 15, 1928. Doris was the fifth in a family of six children. She attended McKinley Elementary School and graduated from Richey (MT) High School. Doris grew up in the depression years and taught school after high school graduation.

Doris married Edgar Fisher January 31, 1948. They had four children; Perry, Eugene, Malea and Archie. This union brought 12 grandchildren, and 21 great grandchildren. Doris enjoyed sewing dresses and crafts for her grandchildren. When the grandchildren were grown, she turned to quilting and eventually embroidery. Many of her fondest memories were made while spending time with her sister and best friend, Maxine.

The Christian faith was instilled early by Doris' mother, Cleta, reading bible stories and verses. She enjoyed her fellowship and worship time at Shepherd of the Valley.

Doris is preceded in death by her husband Edgar; parents, brothers Russell and Leslie Candee; sisters, Mattie Carlsen and Florence Candee; grandson, Brian Richards and great granddaughter Sydney Hedges.

*Just passing through I got to spend
What little time I had on earth with you.
And though I had a wonderful life
I was just passing through.*

*I savored every smile and laugh that we shared.
Every moment spent with you showed how much you cared.
A hug when I was lonely, a smile to cheer my day.
Always meant more to me than words can ever say.
Now my time has come to pass and I sadly have to go.
I will miss your gentle heart and the love I've come to know.
Just smile when you think of me and share a laugh or two Because, I'm just a thought away and watching over you.*
