

Randall Ray Haber was born April 20, 1956 in Sidney, MT to Don Haber and Barbara Heacock. He attended Sidney High School and graduated in 1974.

On December 30, 1976 he married the love of his life, Stephanie Deming, at St. Catherine's Catholic Church in Fairview, MT. They made their home in Sidney where Randy worked for Martini Steel, later becoming a Cement Foreman. In a few short years, they moved to Fairview where they enjoyed the next 35 years.

Family meant everything to Randy. He cherished his relationship with his wife of 42 years and his daughters, AnnDee and Tori. His daughters meant the world to him and he was never shy about talking about them. He enjoyed being involved in their many activities. This would involve refereeing their many games and offering a little sideline advice, which they took with a smile.

In 1984, Randy started work for Western Welding, later acquired by Praxair. He ended his career as a Territorial Manager which was a job he thoroughly enjoyed until his health kept him from performing the work up to his standards. He treated his co-workers and customers like family, sharing stories and memories over the years they worked together.

In his spare time he would work with Stephanie at Judy's Catering. He enjoyed the socializing but sometimes needed to be reminded he was there to work. He always said he did it for the "food".

Being a grandpa was the best and most rewarding job Randy had. Each of his grandkids knew they were special and how much they meant to him. He enjoyed the phone calls, videos and pictures, along with several trips to Fargo just to visit and see their smiling faces. He wasn't one to stay home for a relaxing weekend, and would much rather be on the go with his "kids".

Randy and Stephanie enjoyed numerous trips with family and friends. Randy was always trying to plan the next one, sometimes before returning home from the last one. If you knew Randy, you were invited to join us. He was a people person. The last trip that Randy and Stephanie took was to the Grand Canyon in October.

Randy passed away peacefully Sunday morning, December 1, 2019, at his home in Fairview, MT. He will be missed.

He is survived by his wife of 42 years, Stephanie; daughters AnnDee (Matt) Erickson, Tori (Clayton) Weisbeck; and grandchildren Adrianna Braun, Katlyn, Brody, Kacey, Payton Erickson and Treyson Weisbeck.

He is preceded in death by baby son Steven, mother Barbara Heacock, brother Rick, and in-laws James and Marjorie Deming.

I N L O V I N G
Memory

Randall "Randy" Haber

April 20, 1956 ~ December 1, 2019

Randall "Randy" Haber

Born

April 20, 1956 ~ Sidney, Montana

Passed Away

December 1, 2019 ~ Fairview, Montana

Mass of Christian Burial

10:00 a.m., Friday, December 6, 2019

St. Catherine's Catholic Church

Fairview, Montana

Presider

Father Jim O'Neil

Music

Jan Duda Jacquelyn Free

Casketbearers

Nolan Tveit Mark Skelton Doug Danielson

Rick Weigel Kim Klose Matthew Hallgrimson

Honorary Casketbearers

All Randy's Friends & Family

Ushers

Randy Selvig Kevin O'Neil

Final Resting Place

Fairview Cemetery ~ Fairview, Montana

Arrangements By

Fulkerson-Stevenson Funeral Home

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
O yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief,
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now: He set me free...*