

Corinne Zelda Sharbono was born April 10, 1956 to Orville and Pauline (Kittler) Sharbono. She was the youngest for three children. She attended school in Lambert, and after moving to Fairview in 1968 she completed her school, graduating in 1975.

Corinne loved animals, and had many different kinds. Probably her favorite, in her younger years, were her horses, Diablo and Fury. With these, she became a member of the Valley Vaquerolls, and rode in parades and even presented the flags at the beginning of the Richland County Fair. After her mother's death their two dogs Simon and Cleo became her companions.

She also rode her own motorcycle and went on trips with her parents and friends.

She lived at home most of her life, and after Orville's death she continued to help her mother out with the yard, gardening and home. They took pride in the many different kinds of flowers they had each year. During the Christmas season they enjoyed deciding on how to place the Christmas lights on the house.

They also enjoyed attending the Fairview Festival, Richland County Fair, and made a trip to Yellowstone National Park.

As her mom aged, Corinne became the caretaker for her, and her brothers loved her for that because she did a great job.

Throughout her life, she worked at the Fairview News, Fairview School cafeteria, and Super Valu. At the time of her death, she was working at Neu's Super Valu, where she loved all the other employees and liked visiting with the customers.

Corinne loved all her nieces and nephews dearly, and tried to see them as much as she could. Whether it was a concert, football game, basketball game, volleyball game, or just a family gathering she always attended.

Corinne is survived by: her brothers; Rick (LuAnn) and Ken (Graycie), nieces; Marci (David) Ellingson, Jennifer (Chris) Sitter, and Michelle (Shaun) Jensen, nephews; Dan (Alyssa) Sharbono and Mike (Jessica) Sharbono, great nieces; Allison Jensen and Matiah Sharbono, great nephews; Parker Jensen, Hunter Sharbono, and Riley Ellingson.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Orville and Pauline Sharbono.

Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder why I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.

And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.

There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth-
You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

Our Father

who art in Heaven
Hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in HEAVEN.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive

us our trespasses, as we forgive
those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the Glory forever.
