Celebrating THE Life OF

Milton Jacob Franz

February 15, 1942 - January 11, 2020

Milton Jacob Franz was born on February 15, 1942 in Jamestown, North Dakota to Adolf and Ida (Kienzel) Franz.

Milton came to Opportunity Foundation (formerly known as Tri-City Cares) in September of 1992. He lived in Tioga for almost three months before he moved to Stanley where he resided until his death.

Milton loved to be outdoors and explore, he especially enjoyed his walks where he could study all the construction that was taking place in town. One of his favorite pastimes was taking rides out in the country. Milton was known to play pranks on his friends.

Milton enjoyed working with his hands and enjoyed drawing daily.

He passed away at the age of 77 at his home in Stanley, ND.

Milton was preceded in death by his parents, Adolf and Ida. He is survived by his sister Sherry Vanzee of Marana, AZ.
