

The Chain

*We knew little that morning
That God was going to call your name.*

In life we loved you dearly.

In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,

You did not go alone,

*For part of us went with you,
That day God called you home.*

You left us peaceful memories,

Your love is still our guide:

And though we cannot see you,

You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,

And nothing seems the same,

But as God calls us one by one

The chain will link again.

Duane "Dewey" Johnson was born on November 30, 1942 to Dallas and Doris Hagen Johnson in Williston, ND. He attended grade school at the rural Randall School and went to high school at Watford City High School, graduating in 1963. He was on the wrestling team during his high school years.

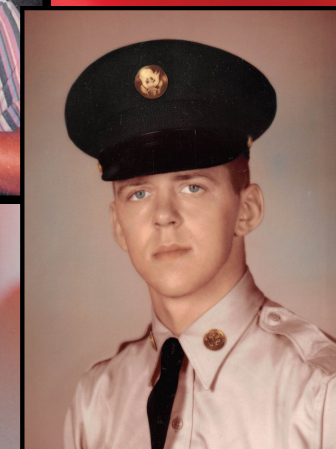

After graduation Dewey joined the Army serving in Fort Leonard Wood, MO and in England. Upon completion of his service in the military he went to work in the oil field. During his working career he worked at oil well services, Jorgenson Ranch and the Senior Center where he drove the bus for the residents. When he retired his favorite things were to eat at the Senior Center, attending all the games at Watford City High School, eating breakfast at the One Stop with customers and friends, and watching western movies and eating at his son Nathan's. He met many new friends.

Dewey is preceded in death by his parents Dallas and Doris Johnson, and many aunts and uncles.

He is survived by his son Nathan Sivertson of Watford City, ND and his children Natasha, Derek, Cody and Sadie, Jodie (Jon) Wick of Mohall, ND and their children Alyssa, Justin and Kamron, Dana (Wade) Wold of Watford City, ND and their daughter Kira, great-grandson Burke Witte and his sister Darlene (Ross) Birney of Bismarck, ND.
