

MASTER'S BOUQUET

*The Master walked in His garden
Plucking flowers along the way;
He plucked one of my loved ones,
To add to his bouquet.*

*My heart at first was broken,
At the loss of one so dear;*

*But the tears I shed just washed my eyes,
So I saw His way more clear.*

*My Lord has a need for just this one,
For the pattern He has in mind;
But it's hard for the rest of us to see
Why we must be left behind.*

*Perhaps we are not ready to go just yet
We may need to ripen more
To reach the full blown fragrance
My Lord is waiting for.*

*To each, give forth a fragrance
To each we chance to meet
We should each be trying day by day
To make our fragrance sweet.
So I'm going to try my very best
To be loving and kind each day,
So at last I'll be counted worthy
To be part of my Master's Bouquet.*

In Loving Memory Of

Alice M. Kaldahl

August 22, 1925 - September 13, 2020

Alice M. Boline was born to Blanche (Arnold) Boline and Ben P. Boline in Rural Ray, North Dakota on August 22, 1925. She attended grade school at Stewart School and graduated from Ray High School with the class of 1943.

Alice worked at Phil's Grocery in Ray until she got enough money to move to Spokane Washington. After moving, she worked at Baxter General Hospital until it closed and then worked at Northwest Bell Telephone Company in Spokane for a year. She returned to Ray and enrolled in Minot State College. After graduation, she taught in rural schools in Western ND for seven years.

She met and married Glen Kaldahl, on August 12, 1953 in Ray. She worked as a teacher's aide at Ray School for seven years and later worked at Ray Variety Store for nine years.

Alice was an active member of Ray Lutheran Church and E.L.C.W. She taught Sunday School for many years and helped make quilts for about 30 years for World Relief. She was a member of the Ray Garden Club until it closed. For fifty-five some years, she was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary where she held several offices. She was also a member of the Ray Senior Citizens and helped start and was still a member of the Ray Museum.

Alice is survived by her sons, Robert Kaldahl of Williston, ND, Donald (Barb) Kaldahl of Ray, ND; daughter, Marilyn (Norman) Hodnefield of Ray, ND; grandchildren, Heather (Ed) Jones of Pittsboro, IN, Shanon Hodnefield of Williston, ND, Misty (Gary) Donnelly of Ray, Tom (Becky) Hodnefield, of Fargo ND, Kristle (Sam) Sagaser, Jr. of Tioga, ND; ten great-grandchildren; 2 great-great grandchildren, many nieces and nephews in Spokane, WA. and a gymnasium full of Ray kids that called her Grandma Alice, too. Alice was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Glen; brothers, Harry Boline, Arthur Boline, Vernon Boline; twin sisters, Iva Braaten, Ida Krause and Evelyn Tierney.
