

Precious Lord, Take My Hand

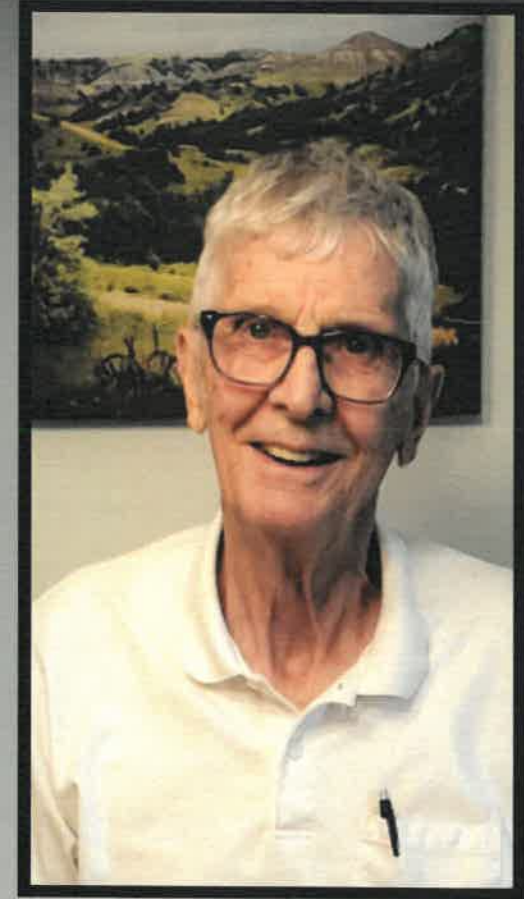

451

1 Pre - cious Lord, take my hand, Lead me on, let me stand;
 2 When my way grows drear, Pre - cious Lord, lin - ger near,
 3 When the dark - ness ap - pears And the night draws near

I am tired. I am weak, I am worn.
 When my life is al - most gone.
 And the day is al - most gone.

Through the storm, through the night, Lead me on to the light.
 Hear my cry, hear my call; Hold my hand lest I fall.
 At the riv - er I stand; Guide my feet, hold my hand,

Take my hand, pre - cious Lord; Lead me home.
 Take my hand, pre - cious Lord; Lead me home.
 Take my hand, pre - cious Lord; Lead me home.

Dennis D. Fredricksen
 December 28, 1932 - April 11, 2021

Dennis Duane Fredricksen was born in Williston, ND on December 28, 1932 to Clifford and Molly (Welo) Fredericksen. On April 11th, 2021, in his home with his family by his side, the Lord called him home.

Dennis graduated from Williston High School in 1951. Upon graduation, he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force, served in the Korean Conflict, and was honorably discharged. Dennis met Loraine Sowitch and they married on June 20th, 1957. Together they had four children; Rick, Vicki, Misti and Kandee.

Dennis worked at Gaffaney's for 18 years. He then founded Fredricksen Real Estate and had a successful career as a Broker and Salesman until his retirement. He was also a landlord and owned several rental properties.

He was a member of Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church, the Elks, Masonic Lodge & American Legion.

Dennis enjoyed traveling and spent several winters in Yuma, AZ. Some of his interests included being outdoors, golfing, hunting, fishing, and spending time at his cabin at Lake Jesse.

He had a fondness for classic cars, collecting coins and collecting guns. Dennis loved playing gin, cribbage and casino. He LOVED TO WIN!!

He is survived by his son, Rick Fredricksen (Corky), Rock Springs, WY; his daughters, Vicki (Jeff) Andersen, Anchorage AK; Misti (John) McMullen, Lexington KY; Kandee Fredricksen, Williston, ND; brothers, Robert (June) Fredericksen, Sun City West, AZ; Ross (Norma) Fredericksen, Glendale, CA; sisters-in-law, Daisy Boe, Soquel, CA; Darlene Severson, Fresno CA; eight grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Dennis was preceded in death by his wife, Loraine; his parents and brother, Conrad.

When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a
soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared-
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to HOME.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know, & bury your sorrows
In doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.
