

Grace Langved

Born to Fred & Inga Pierson
November 21, 1933 ~ Tioga, North Dakota
Called Home to Her Heavenly Father
September 10, 2021 ~ Tioga, North Dakota

Her Funeral Service
Saturday, September 18, 2021 at 11:00 am
First Lutheran Church ~ Tioga North Dakota

Officiating                      Musician
Pastor Mike Burns              Sandy McCloud

Congregational Music Selections

Amazing Grace
How Great Thou Art
Old Rugged Cross

Pallbearers

Shannon Uran              Tyler Langved
Cody White                  Roger Harper
Douglas Peyton              Leon Perzinski

Honorary Pallbearer

Art Langved

Final Resting Place

United Cemetery, Tioga, ND

Arrangements Entrusted By

Fulkerson Stevenson Funeral Home ~ Tioga, ND

"5 Generations Of Love"

In Loving Memory Of

Grace I. Langved

"Full Of Grace"

November 21, 1933 ~ September 10, 2021

The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer; My God, my strength, in whom I will trust; My shield and the horn of my salvation,
my stronghold.

Psalm 18:2

When you lived your life for others and you loved without condition
When you made so many laugh and your smile won't be forgotten
When you left behind an empty place that no one else can fill
When the friendships that you shared long to be renewed
When you built your life on hope and fulfilled it every day
The footprints that you left behind will bring us face to face
So, goodbye is not forever,
You're only steps away.

Grace Inga Langved passed away peacefully in her sleep in the morning hours of September 10, 2021 surrounded by her friends and family, at the Tioga Nursing Home in Tioga, ND.

Grace was born on November 21, 1933 to Fred G. Pierson and Inga Olson in the Lindahl Township North of Tioga, North Dakota. She was reared there and attended school in Lindahl. Grace was baptized and confirmed at the St. Olaf Church near Tioga. She had seven sisters and one brother. Grace has always loved everyone in her family, but really loved the large family that she was so blessed to have.

Grace was united in marriage to Roy D. Langved on June 12, 1953 in Passo, Washington. After they married, they established their home in Tioga, ND.

In her younger years, Grace worked as a CNA at the Tioga Medical Hospital. During her many years of service, she enjoyed working as a Norwegian Translator for the patients who didn't speak a word of English. This served an extremely valuable service as she translated doctors orders to these patients. Her patience and caring nature made this service seem completely effortless to her as she was able to relate better with the patients.

Roy and Grace moved and made their home and farmstead in the Pleasant Valley Township, Williams County, South East of Tioga in 1969. Grace was heavily involved with the day-to-day operation of the family farmstead. She loved to cook and bake. Grace would always ensure that the farmhands had plenty of delicious food to eat while they worked. From branding, planting or harvest, she was there not only to ensure that all the items got done, but that no one was hungry while they did it.

Grace and Roy really enjoyed attending the White Earth Rodeo. For many years they would enjoy the events and spent many nights camping there. Her favorite event was watching the bull riding. Not only did Roy and Grace enjoy traveling, they didn't stay confined to the borders of the United States. Their travels often found themselves visiting other countries like Mexico and Canada. Their travels would also find themselves spending months at a time in areas like Las Vegas, New Orleans and Washington State. Grace enjoyed watching the Minnesota Vikings play football with Roy. Grace prepared food for the games and enjoyed spending time with others as they watched the games.

They had 4 children and Grace went on to enjoy 6 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and 7 great-great grandchildren.

After the passing of her husband Roy, in 1992, Grace lived with her son Gary helping him with the farmstead. She then moved to Tioga, ND in 2010.

Grace always enjoyed gardening throughout her life. She not only enjoyed keeping her flowers, she enjoyed growing and canning her vegetables.

Grace loved to collect angels. She was always surrounded by angels that she had collected from all over ND. Grace enjoyed attending the Medora Musical accompanied by her sister Alma and/or her daughter Rita.

She is survived by her daughter, Rita (Sam) Uran of New Town, ND; her son, Steven Langved of Tioga, ND; sisters, Emma Offerdahl of Dickinson, ND, Alma Lalim of Minot, ND and Lila Perzinski of Tioga, ND; and brother-in-law, Art Langved of New Town, ND

She was preceded in death by her husband, Roy; two sons, Tommy and Gary; parents, Fred and Inga; brother, Carl; three sisters, Gena, Jennie and Clara; nephews, Rodney Iverson and David Lalim; nieces, Linda Iverson, Susan Kuntz and Cindy Knoshaug; brothers-in-law, Thomas and Bob Langved, Carl Lalim, Bud Knoshaug, Mike Perzinski, Clayton Offerdahl, Bud Osborn and Harold Sandvold; sister-in-law, Gloria Osborn; father-in-law, Tom Langved, and mother-in-law, Agnes Langved.

