

We'll always Remember
That special smile, That caring heart
That warm embrace,
You ALWAYS gave us.
You being there. For mom and us.
No matter what.
We'll always remember you Dad
because there'll never be anyone to replace you in our hearts.
And the love we will always have for you.

A Fisherman's Prayer

I Pray that I may live to fish
 Until my dying day.
 And when it comes to my last cast,
 I then most humbly pray:
 When in the Lord's great landing net
 And peacefully asleep,
 That in His mercy,
 I be judged big enough
 To Keep.

Marlin P. Schroeder of Watford City, ND passed away with his family by his side on Sunday, May 8, 2022 at the McKenzie County Hospital in Watford City, ND. Marlin was deeply loved far and wide and will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Marlin was born on July 12, 1940, the son of Fredrick and Myrtle (Redmann) Schroeder. He attended school in Bismarck and graduated from Bismarck High School in 1959. Marlin started his grocery career with Dan's Supermarket in Bismarck his senior year of high school. On October 2, 1961 Marlin married Marilyn Randich, which they just celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. To this union three children were born, Shelly, MaLissa, and Mike. Marlin and family moved to Watford City in 1981 and made it their home. He spent most of his working years in the grocery industry. Marlin thoroughly enjoyed visiting with anyone who came through the doors of the store and never seemed to meet a stranger. After retiring from Jack & Jill in 2002, he spent his time helping Marilyn care for their daycare kids. Marlin often talked about how much fun they had during this time and considered them all part of his family. Marlin enjoyed a very full life and found joy in all things he did. In the summers he could often be found on the lake looking for the biggest walleye or just enjoying the company of whoever was in his boat. Family was another important aspect in Marlin's life. Him and Marilyn frequently attended sporting events or anything their grandchildren were a part of showing their full support. His famous words whenever someone left their house was "come back again and don't wait so long next time" even if they just were there the day before. He loved Marilyn fiercely and with everything he had. He often shared that the best thing he ever did was marry his sweetheart. Together they set an example for all of us showing what true love and a happy marriage really looked like.

Marlin is survived by his wife, Marilyn Schroeder; children, Shelly Rogness, MaLissa Schroeder, and Mike (Rachelle) Schroeder; his grandchildren, Jon (Meleah)

Rogness, Jenny Rogness, Alex Schroeder, Marissa (Jerry Shevlin) Schroeder, and Jacob Rogness; great-granddaughter and the apple of his eye, Amiyah Shevlin; brothers, Roger Schroeder and Kevin (Charmaine) Schroeder; sister, Debbie (Dave) Bergquist; brothers-in-law, Larry Glatt, Kenny (Ronalda) Randich, Andy Randich, and Bob (Cheri) Randich; sisters-in-law, Kathy Carbono, Debbie (Dave) Astar, and Pat Schroeder; numerous nieces and nephews; and countless bonus grandchildren.

Marlin is preceded in death by his parents; mother and father-in-law, John and Helen Randich; son-in-law, Lonny Rogness; sister, Sandy Schroeder; twin brother, Marv Schroeder; brother, Dennis Schroeder; brother-in-law, Donny Randich; sisters-in-law, Sue Glatt and Sharon Schroeder.
