

When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a
soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared-
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to HOME.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know, & bury your sorrows
In doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.

Cornell Wollan

October 28, 1947 - April 10, 2025

Cornell Wollan, 77 passed away April 10, 2025, at Country House Memory Care in Dickinson, ND from complications of Lewy Body Dementia. His long struggle ended.

Cornell Stuart Wollan was born October 28, 1947, in Willison, ND to Lynn and Mildred (Felland) Wollan. He was the middle child of five siblings and a lifelong McKenzie County resident. He attended school at Charlson, ND and Watford City graduating in 1965. He attended business school in Minot, ND.

Cornell married Noreen Agvik in 1970 and to this union two children were born. Darnell and Bradley. They were engaged in agriculture and Cornell always held a love for farming, ranching, and the land which was instilled by his father-in-law. Noreen and Cornell later divorced.

Cornell and Laurel Olson started a new mid-life chapter in their lives which developed into a beautiful novel. They became lifelong partners for 24 years and made their home in rural Arnegard.

Cornell was a kind and gentle soul with a big heart. He enjoyed bowling, fishing, birding and hiking in the Badlands, especially with brother Miles. He loved blue skies, nature, the beauty of the land, and his grandchildren. Cornell worked many various jobs in his lifetime. Farming, water well service, Total Safety, Baker Petrolite, and Cenex.

Cornell is survived by his children, Darnell, Brad (Cindy) Wollan; significant other, Laurel Olson; sister, Linda Nelson; brothers, Miles and Arden (Pyong) Wollan; Noreen Wollan; Madeline Miller; sister-in-law, Myrna Wollan, and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Grandchildren, Briana, Nikita, Dakota, Mason Wollan; great grandchildren, Qui'Anna and Quincy.

He is preceded in death by his parents; brother, David; brother-in-law, Barry Nelson; niece, Tammy Pederson; sisters-in-law, Sandra Wollan, Kim Wollan; nephew, Jeff Nelson.
