

Marjorie Jean (Satterlund) Clark went to her eternal home on May 16, 2025, at the age of 92. Marjorie was born at her country home in Carpio, ND on October 21, 1932 to Victor and Clara (Olson) Satterlund of Carpio, ND.

She was raised and educated in rural Carpio, ND where she attended country school and graduated from Dakota Lutheran High School in Minot, ND, in 1950. She attended Minot State Teachers College from 1952-1954 receiving her teaching certificate. She then taught for the next two years at South Callahan, Grano, and Velva schools.

Marjorie met the love of her life, Roy Clark, who she had known since early elementary school. Marjorie and Roy were united in marriage on December 23, 1955, in Minot, ND. They were blessed with six children.

In 1967, they moved to Williston, ND where they continued to raise their family. Marjorie's compassion and caring ways led her to opening up an in-home daycare for many years. She was the "CEO" of the Clark household and took pride in being a dedicated homemaker.

Grandma Marge had a way of making each of her grandchildren and great-children feel special, whether it was through baking, playing board games, or reading books. She loved playing Scrabble, Racko, and Yahtzee with her children and grandchildren.

Sports were a huge part of her family's life and you could find Marjorie present at many of their sporting events and activities. Her interest in sports continued throughout her entire life. The phrase "Track it Down Marge" will continue to be uttered by Jack Michaels every time a Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks player hits a homerun!

She was ever present in her grandchildren's lives. She provided a sense of solace, support, and oftentimes, laughter. She always took the time to listen and knew exactly what to say to make you feel better. Her wit and sense of humor could match anyone's. Her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren were the pride and joy of her life.

Marjorie is survived by her five children, Vicki (Bruce) Loyland of Thompson, ND, Randy (Letty) Clark of San Antonio, TX; Debbie (Dean) DeMoe of Tioga, ND; Shelly Lynch of Williston, ND; Todd Clark of Fargo, ND. Fourteen grandchildren, Brandon (Abby) Weltikol, Tara (Zac)

Peterson, Tyler DeMoe, Brandi Clark, Collin Lynch, Randy Roy Clark, Jaden Lynch, McKenna (Rhett) Wolter, Johanna (Connor) Moore, Samantha Clark, Cameron Clark, Trey Lynch, Preston Clark, Parker Clark; great-grandchildren, Dallas Weltikol, Kyree Clark, Wyatt, Ada, Oakley and Archie Peterson, Chesney and Kiplee Wolter, and also great-grandson Moore due in June; sister, Delores Scanlon; sister-in-law, Janet Clark, brother-in-law, Harold (Carol) Clark; numerous nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Roy Clark; parents; siblings, Edwin, Eunice, Donald, Evelyn, and Marvin. She was also preceded in death by her infant son, Rodney James.

We're so proud and blessed how Marjorie has touched so many lives with her sweet, caring, and compassionate ways. She leaves a legacy of love for her family, spreading kindness, and being strong in her faith.

In Loving Memory Of

Marjorie Clark

October 21, 1932

May 16, 2025

*There is no place
 that we can go where Jesus hasn't been.
 There is no battle
 we can fight
 that He didn't fight and win.
 The victories of our dear Lord He's given to us to share
 So when your heart is heavy cast on Him
 your every care.
 And when that final day does come
 we can shout
 with great elation.
 As we join the heavenly angels
 In the victory celebration!*
