

When you remember me,

It means you have carried something of who I am with you, that I have left some mark of who I am on who you are.

It means that you can summon me back to your mind even though countless years and miles may stand between us.

It means that if we meet again,
you will know me.

It means that even after I die,
you can still see my face and hear my voice and speak to me in your heart.

For as long as you remember me,
I am never entirely lost.

*When I am dead pray for me a little, think of me sometimes, but not too much. It is not good for you to allow your thoughts to dwell too long on the dead.
Think of me now and again as I was in life at some moment which it is pleasant to recall. But not too long.
Leave me in peace as I shall leave you, too, in peace.
While you live let your thoughts be with the living.*

In Loving Memory Of

Clarence "Wade" Hartle

March 2, 1958 - September 4, 2025

The man who makes no mistakes does not usually make anything.

-Edward Phelps

Clarence Wade Hartle, whom almost everyone knew as Wade, passed away at the Sidney Health Center on the morning of September 4, 2025. Wade struggled with lung issues for several years and watched the love of his life Daniela, his wife of 31 years, pass away a little over a year and half ago after battling cancer. He has gone to join her and both their parents, Roy and Patricia Hartle and Leon and Raveca Sev, on the other side.

Wade was born in Glasgow, MT on March 2, 1958, but grew up and lived his entire life in Sidney except to attend college at MSU in Bozeman. After trips to Romania and a lot of letters and phone calls, Daniela immigrated to the US and they married on June 20, 1993, at the Assembly of God Church.

Wade is survived by his four siblings; brother Dana Hartle and wife Trudy Landry, his sister Wendy and husband Jeffrey Hodges, sister Tammy and husband Donald (Craig) Dozier, and sister Shanna Hartle. He is also survived by 3 nieces, 4 nephews and several grand nephews and nieces.

While Wade and Daniela never had children of their own and all his siblings had moved from Montana, Wade did find a surrogate family in the children of one of his best friends. In those children, and their children, he found a family to lean on after Daniela's passing.

Wade was known as a generous and helpful individual to his friends and family. He will be greatly missed by all.

Be true to your work,
your word, and your friend.
